Tuesday 12 January 2021.

Dear Prime Minister,

Most families are feeling flat and fed up.

We need you to be the merriest, kindest and most substantial Prime Minister of your time.

Christmas is a festive time for celebrating, spreading Christmas cheer and eating Christmas dinner.

Christmas is merry like a shining Christmas star in the dark wild sky. Millions of children are still attending school (working away) but you still want to get rid of the merriest time of the year.

An upstanding member of the local town council, Bob Ryan agrees that everybody deserves Christmas. Mr Johnson please let ~~families~~ families celebrate Christmas. If you allow this to happen families will be refreshed and ready to work again!

We know you have a big heart Boris, so

Wil

Travelling through the woods one day I suddenly heard a strange noise of rustling. The crunching of the leaves beneath my feet. I could hear water flowing as I walked through the trees. I could see a lot of trees, flowers and birds. I could smell the bark of the trees and the sweet aroma of the flowers.

Forest Owls

Ella

Slowly I walked through the pitch , black forest.
Then suddenly I toppled head
first into a dark hole!

The bright yellow sunshine blazed onto my eyes,the green grass had miniscule dew drops lying neatly on the green grasses tips.

Beyond the shiny green
grass, I saw a humongous
oak tree staring right at me, when I touched it, it felt hard almost like a dragons scaly
,skin.Although it was tempting to pick the indigo
flower, I let it grow.

I watched the beautiful flowers grow, they were in every colour.

Destinee

I stumbled and found myself plummeting through the ground.

Behind the tree tops the sun was glistening in the daylight. Soon i realised i was lost.

Entirely lost. Slowly i took a step towards the glistening forest.

Underneath the bushes i could hear rustling, i was surrounded by the gloomy maple trees.

Beyond the horizon the mountains peaked in the blush sky.

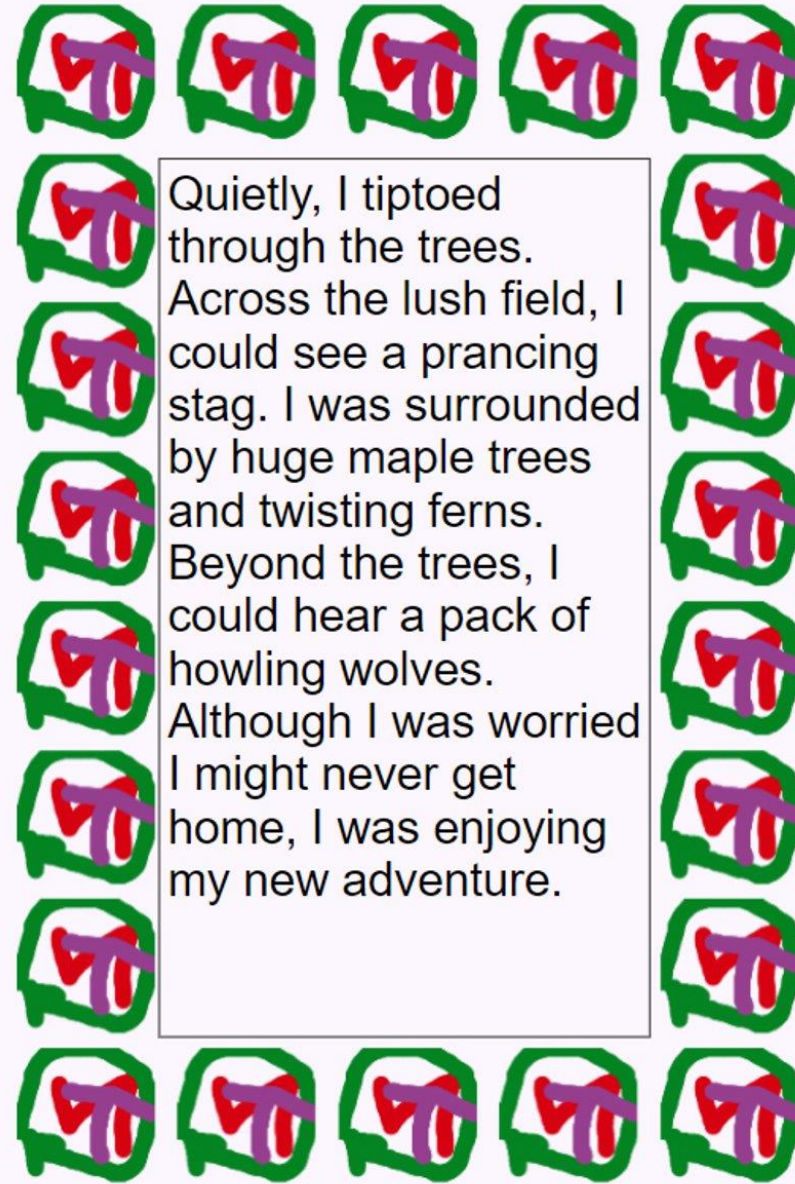

Although i felt panicked, i looked forward to the experience ahead.

Tate

Quietly, I tiptoed
through the trees.
Across the lush field, I could see a prancing stag. I was surrounded by huge maple trees
and twisting ferns.
Beyond the trees, I could hear a pack of howling wolves.
Although I was worried
I might never get home, I was enjoying my new adventure.

Porchia

I toppled and found myself stumbled down,down down.

Above the tree tops the daylight was rising in the sky.

Soon i realised i was lost. Completely lost.

Slowly, i walked through the forest.

Behind me i could hear a fox
scratching on the tree.

I was surrounded by the white fluffy
cotton fields.

Beyond the setting sun, the white owl emerged from its tree hut.

Although i felt frightened,the sun began to set in the forest it seemed to come alive with wildlife and that made me feel happy.

Bayrem

I can see flowers and bushes
weaving in the distance the tall bushes with their leaves falling .

I can hear birds tweeting over me
and bears growning on the hills.

The sweet smell of the trres and flowers arround me bouncing of them all over the forest.

I can touch the roten brown
treebark on the old green brown trees.

I feel myself a little bit worried and excited while i was walking through the forest.

Oscar

I can see the tall birch tree with its leaves rustling in the wind.

I can hear the snakes rattling
in the long, lush grass.

I can smell the green
swampy water wafting up from the breeze.

I can the feel the crunchy
leaves falling off the trees,
hitting my skin.

I feel excited but nervous for my adventure.

Ruby. W

The Stone Age boy

Slowly the boy moved and looked at the trees as he was walking through the hills. He was feeling as happy as a bunny. The cold Autumn breeze was blowing the leaves all around. Beyond the trees he could just see something sparkling. Although it was cold outside the sun was still shining.

My Day

A Hunter Gatherer

Morning

I get my cereal from the cupboard or mum makes me something hot like pancakes

Animals have to hunt for their breakfast. Food like rabbits for foxes or wamrns or berries for birds.

Morning

Midday

I'd have my pack-lunch or something would be freshly made by myself or my family

Either go hunting or foraging or eat something they have saved for later

Midday

Afternoon

I'd have a snack from home

Animals would have to find food and water

Afternoon

Evening

We would have a big dinner made by mum or dad. Sometimes me and my brothers and sister make dinner

Hunting time again
